

I heard on WTHR in Indianapolis that there is discussion to allow any bank, lending institution, etc. to call our homes. They are trying to get around Indiana's "do not call list". I will call any bank or lending institution, etc. when I want. I do not want them calling me at any time!